

Application form

Application for a residence and work permit for self-employed persons (non-EU/EEA citizens)

Uses

This form is to be used when applying for a Danish residence and work permit as a self-employed person.

This form is only for use by non-EU/EEA citizens. Please see www.newtodenmark.dk for further information about the rules for EU/EEA citizens.

How to apply

1. Complete this form and sign in section 8 (following the instructions given)
2. Attach the required documentation (see below).
3. Submit the application at a Danish diplomatic mission in your country of residence. If you are a legal resident of Denmark, the application may be submitted at the local police station or at the Service Centre of the Immigration Service.

Which documents are required?

- Copy of passport (all pages including front page)
- Two passport photos
- Documentation for CVR registration (in the central company register of the Danish Commerce and Company Agency)
- Annual report or budget (preferably reviewed by an accountant)
- Documentation for equity interest or company equity
- Business plan, which includes type of business, innovative aspects of company or prospects for growth, including expected number of workplaces
- Documentation for any partnerships with or other form of support from Danish companies
- Documentation for any contracts or other agreements you have entered into
- Documentation for relevant training/education, previous experience as a self-employed person and/or work experience from the field in question
- Documentation for personal capital (e.g. bank statements)
- Documentation for relevant authorisation (only applicable if the job/running of the company requires a Danish authorisation)

To get the quickest response

You can get the quickest possible response to your application if the application forms are completed correctly and the necessary documents are enclosed.

Therefore, it is very important that both the employer and the applicant carefully complete the form, and remember to enclose all the necessary documentation.

Do I need other documents when submitting the application?

Yes. You must present your passport so the authorities can verify your identity.

How long is the residence and work permit valid for?

The residence and work permit can be granted for a period of one year. After this time, you can apply for an extension of your permit. You can find the relevant application form at www.newtodenmark.dk.

When can you begin work?

You can begin work when you have received your residence and work permit. If you work in a self-employed capacity and/or start an independent company in Denmark illegally, you risk expulsion, fine or imprisonment.

If your company ceases to exist, if the company goes through a change, or you start a new company

Your residence and work permit can be revoked if your company ceases operations or if there is a significant change in its type of activity. You are obliged to inform the Immigration Service if any of these should happen.

If you wish to start a new company, you must apply for a new residence and work permit.

For more information

More information about the regulations for Danish residence and work permits and how to fill out the application is available at www.newtodenmark.dk. You can also contact the Immigration Service in writing, in person at the Service Centre or by phone. (See contact information at the bottom of this page.)

7. Sworn declarations

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information I have given in part 1 (section 1-8) of this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years
- I can be required by law to pay back the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false or incomplete information
- My residence permit can be revoked

The Danish Immigration Service - Ryesgade 53 – DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø - Tel.: +45 35 30 85 55 – Email: work-education@us.dk - www.newtodenmark.dk – Office hours Monday to Friday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. – Service Centre open Monday to Friday 8.30 a.m. to 12.00, Thursday also 3.30 p.m. to 5.30 p.m.

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to allowing the relevant authorities obtain and pass on information about my private affairs for the purpose of enabling them to process my application. Information can be obtained from or passed on to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police authorities.

Such information includes:

- Previous criminal proceedings against me
- My familial relations
- Verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine

I also consent to allowing authorities contacted by the Danish Immigration Service while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs for use in responding to the Immigration Service's enquiry.

C. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority.

Prosecuting authorities will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad.

D. Notification that relevant information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to give certain information to the municipality in which you settle if you receive a residence permit.

Such information includes:

- The grounds for issuing you a residence permit

The municipality will be informed if:

- Your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- Your residence permit is found to have expired
- Your residence permit is made permanent

E. Notification that Danish authorities have registered information about you and your affairs

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a passport will be registered in the Aliens Register. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence permit.

The Aliens Register is a computerised register maintained by the Danish Immigration Service.

If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Central Person Register. The Central Person Register is a computerised register maintained by the Danish Ministry of Welfare.

The information in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register will be used to answer questions relating to your residence in Denmark. Public administration authorities (record keeping), the police (record keeping and verification) and the Ministry of Integration (reviewing complaints) will have access to the information about you contained in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register if they require the information to address questions relating to your residence in Denmark.

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months of imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy. You are entitled to access information about yourself in the Aliens Register and the Central Person Register. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Immigration Service, Ryesgade 53, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø.

F. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Integration Service or another Danish authority may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you gave in this application. This may happen while the application is being reviewed or after the applicant has received his / her extension. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the Immigration Service suspects you of providing false information.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study

Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

G. Information about possible consequences if you apply for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If you are in Denmark on a visa (short term) and you submit an application for a residence permit while in the country, please note that this may have the following consequences:

- You may be sentenced to a waiting period of up to five years. Normally, you will not be eligible for a visa during the waiting period. However, this does not apply to applications for a residence and work permit under the Job Card scheme or applications for family reunification of spouses.
- If you are in Denmark on a visitor's visa contingent on an economic guarantee by a person residing in Denmark (DKK 54,813 – 2008 level), the Immigration Service will normally forfeit this guarantee if you apply for a Danish residence permit while in Denmark. However, this does not apply to applications for a residence and work permit under the Job Card scheme.

Please note that you can apply for a residence and work permit under the Job Card scheme without risking the consequences listed above. Furthermore, you can apply for family reunification of spouses without risking a waiting period. However, any economic guarantee will be forfeited.
